At the unopposed recommendation of Defendant's supervising Pretrial Services Officer, the Defendant shall be released to live with his mother and stepfather. Defendant previously was released to live in a Community Corrections Center. The conditions of release in this court's Orders filed August 29, 2005, and March 6, 2006, are MODIFIED as follows:

1. Defendant shall reside with his mother and stepfather pending the Defendant's sentencing, currently scheduled for July 18, 2006. Defendant's mother and stepfather have agreed to supervise the Defendant, and they shall report any violations of conditions of release to the U.S. Probation Office. Defendant's siblings may assist with the supervision of Defendant. Defendant shall complete and return to the court an updated A.O. Form 199C within two business days of release. Defendant shall contact his supervising Pretrial Services Officer within two business days of his release.

4. Defendant shall undergo urinalysis testing at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office, but no more than six times per month.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
